

Employer Agreement Letter

A current (less than one year old) Employer Agreement Letter is required for all veterinary technicians at the time they register for a CRI course and updated annually until CCRA certification is awarded. In addition, Employers will be asked to submit an up-to-date Agreement at the time the student applies for an internship, the final step required for certification as a Canine Rehabilitation Assistant (CCRA).

Date:

Applicant:

Veterinarian or Physical Therapist who will supervise the applicant:

Practice Name:

Practice Owner/Manger:

1. The applicant is a credentialed veterinary technician YES NO*

*If the applicant is not a credentialed veterinary technician, a letter of recommendation will be required following the guidelines specified in the course application.

2. Is there a licensed veterinarian or physical therapist at the practice who is certified in canine rehabilitation? YES NO

Name:

Title(s):

License #:

Certifying Program:

Date Certified:

3. Is there a veterinarian or physical therapist at the practice that is currently enrolled in the CRI certification program or registered for Introduction to Canine Rehabilitation?
YES NO

Name:

Title(s):

License #:

4. I understand that this veterinary technician cannot be certified as a CCRA until his/her supervising veterinarian/physical therapist has been certified. YES NO
5. I agree to notify CRI right away if circumstances change and there is no longer a veterinarian or physical therapist certified in canine rehabilitation working at this practice. YES NO
6. We will follow all applicable national, state or provincial veterinary and physical therapy practice acts in our practice of canine rehabilitation. YES NO

Supervising Veterinarian or Physical Therapist
Signature/Date: _____

Practice Owner/Manager
Signature/Date: _____

Please email completed form to info@caninerehabinstitute.com or fax to 888-651-0760.
DO NOT MAIL.